

Russian Socio-Ecological Union

Public Participation in Development of National Climate and Energy Policy

13-14 November 2009, St.Petersburg

Programme

13 November

- 15.00 Conference opening: Alexander Fedorov, RSEU co-chairman
Presentation of participants.
- 15.30 Introduction: Olga Senova, RSEU Climate Secretariat
- 15.40 Nina Kobysheva, the Main Geophysical Observatory. Consequences of Climate Change for Various Branches of Economy in Russia.
- 16.10 Georgiy Safonov, Higher School of Economy. Scenarios of GHG Emissions in Russia and post-Kyoto agreement.
- 16.40 Mikhail Yulkin, Centre for Ecological Investments. "Economical mechanisms for GHG emissions reduction: the role of Russia in this process."
- 17.10 Coffee break
- 17.40 Vladimir Chuprov, Greenpeace-Russia. Energy strategy of Russia until 2030.
- 18.10 Evgeniy Gasho, All-Russian Scientific Research and Design Institute for Industrial Technology Energoprom, Federal law and federal target programme of Russian economy energy efficiency increase as the basis for new institutional field of energy efficiency.
- 18.40 Aleksey Kokorin, WWF-Russia, What do we expect from Copenhagen Summit 2009?
Discussion.
- 19.30 Dinner. After dinner – film "Age of Stupid", informal communication.

14 November

- 10.00 Experience and Plans of NGOs in Participation in International Negotiations, in Development of the Russian National Climate and Energy Policy. (RSEU, Ecodefense, Greenpeace, WWF, Bellona, Green Cross, Friends of the Baltic ...)
- 11.00 Introduction in working groups:
- Co-operation of Russian NGOs in Copenhagen
- Work after Copenhagen – work with mass-media, with population
- Work after Copenhagen – work with authorities, with business
- 11.20 Working groups
- 12.30 Presentation of working groups results
- 13.00 Discussion of RSEU Position (and joint Russian NGOs Position) to the Copenhagen Summit
- 13.30 Closing of the conference
- 14.00 Lunch. Departure of the participants after the lunch.